OUR MISSION

Ante Up, YOUR Poker Magazine, is dedicated to everyday poker players and their poker rooms.

It's YOUR magazine

As Ante Up Poker Media enters its 10th year of publishing, we'd like to take this time to thank our readers and partners for helping make us one of poker's premier magazines.

It's been an incredible ride since our first issue in September 2008 and we couldn't have made it this far without you. We have done our best to help this great game of ours, from promoting the industry to showcasing the highlights and milestones of players from all levels and abilities.

With that said, it's the perfect time to remind everyone that we aren't just Ante Up, we are Ante Up, Your Poker Magazine. When you pick up most publications, you're at the mercy of what the writers and editors choose to write and print.

While we, the publishers, always will determine what is "fit to print," you absolutely can contribute to the content in this magazine. If you look to the right-hand side of this page, you'll see the long list of our dedicated and talented ambassadors. They monitor the pulse of their respective poker communities and report on the happenings, but they can't be everywhere.

One of the best ways you can "read what you like" in Ante Up is to email your ambassador and let them know what's going on in your poker rooms.

Maybe there's a great $10-$20 pot-limit Omaha game that has been flying under the radar or a fun promotion that has been packing the house.

Or even better, maybe you appreciate a fine dealer or staff member that you believe should get some recognition. We pride ourselves in calling attention to the positive aspects in poker, from quality service and fine play to well-run tournaments and selfless charity events. So, please don't be shy.

And, of course, Ante Up is a poker cruise company, too. We are so excited about our upcoming schedule, including our first trip to the ABC Islands (Aruba, Bonaire and Curaçao) in April and another incredible return to Cuba in July.

See Pages 8-9 for all of the exciting details.

We'll see you at the tables.

— Christopher Cosenza and Scott Long

Ante Up visits Curacao for the second time.

CRUISING AS EASY AS A-B-C

Play poker on the high seas and visit Aruba, Bonaire, Curacao, Cuba, Jamaica, Haiti and Mexico!

Ante Up Poker Cruises has filled out its 2018 schedule with its second cruise to Cuba and another popular sailing out of its homeport of Tampa, Fla.

“By far, Tampa has been our most popular departure port, so we’re pleased to add two more sailings out of that easily accessible city in 2018,” said Scott Long, who owns Ante Up Poker Cruises with Christopher Cosenza. “And, of course, we were beyond proud to be the first poker cruise company to sail to Cuba, and are happy to offer a second cruise to that high-demand port and once again with our Cuban travel expert, Ramze Suliman, on board to give our passengers unparalleled advice on how best to enjoy their day in Havana.”

The second Cuba cruise will sail for four nights aboard Royal Caribbean’s Empress of the Seas on July 28 with a port stop in festive Key West. Suliman, an author of two books for Americans who want to travel to Cuba and owner of Cuba VIP Tours, will lead at least two informative talks about the island while on board, and will offer expanded private tours that give passengers who book with Ante Up experiences that go well beyond what the cruise ship offers or what passengers can arrange.

“Havana is a port that for way too long was off limits to Americans,” Long said. “It’s literally like going back in time, full of history and experiences that simply can not be enjoyed at any other port that cruise ships call on.”

The other newly added sailing has consistently been Ante Up’s most popular. The five-night sailing aboard Royal Caribbean’s Brilliance of the Seas leaves Oct. 29 and will call on Key West and Cozumel, Mexico, a port stop that has more to offer than any other.

These two sailings are in addition to three other upcoming sailings: Dec. 11, 2017, aboard Royal Caribbean’s Independence of the Seas calling on Falmouth, Jamaica, and Labadee, Haiti, at the best rate offered in several years. Very limited availability remains at the advertised price.

March 8 aboard Royal Caribbean’s Brilliance of the Seas calling on Cozumel, specifically designed for “weekend warriors” who can’t take much time off work.

April 13 aboard Royal Caribbean’s Navigator of the Seas calling on the ABC Islands of Aruba, Bonaire and Curacao, and Labadee, offering players a longer cruise but one that covers two weekends so time off work is limited.

Hollywood Casino Aurora near Chicago is giving away 10 balcony packages for the Dec. 11 sailing in a mega-freeroll on Nov. 12. Poker room managers wishing to offer giveaways to players can call Scott Long at (727) 331-4335 for details on how Ante Up makes this a can’t-miss promotion for their players.

Ante Up Poker Cruises transforms the conference centers on regularly scheduled Royal Caribbean sailings into a professionally staffed and equipped poker room, complete with cash games, tournaments, free poker classes and an open-bar party.

For more information, visit AnteUpCruises.com or call Jeanne Cosenza at (727) 742-3843 to book.

Ante Up Poker Cruises was proud to be the first poker cruise company to sail to Havana, Cuba. In addition to all the great things that come with Ante Up Poker Cruises, our guests were treated to having Cuban travel expert Ramze Suliman on board to lead two discussions about Havana to maximize their enjoyment of this rare port stop. Suliman, above in the black shirt, runs Cuba VIP Tours and has authored two books for Americans wanting to visit Havana. He offered a special VIP tour of Havana for guests: a city tour in a classic American car, lunch at an exclusive restaurant and a walking tour of Old Havana. Join us for our next cruise to Cuba on July 28.

NORCAL CLASSIC AT THUNDER VALLEY OCT. 16

The sixth annual Ante Up NorCal Classic runs Oct. 16-22 at Thunder Valley Casino Resort in Lincoln, Calif. The NorCal is specifically designed to be a shorter and more accessible series, though still featuring the highlight of any Ante Up Poker Tour series, the main-event champion appearing on the cover of Ante Up.

“The NorCal is a one-week series and includes some of our most popular events, like the Action 8 and the Change Up,” Thunder Valley Director of Poker Ben Erwin said. “I have offered the main event at $500 and $1K buy-ins. This year, it will be a one-flight, $1,100 event (Oct. 21, $150K guarantee) with a structure that will only be offered in this event during 2017. Some of the antes are different from what is considered standard and we are trying to play to the money in Day 1.

“One conversation that seems pretty consistent is that players would like to get to the money in Day 1 in events at the $1K price point and below. Some of the tweaks that have been made should allow us to do exactly that.”

For more, go to anteupmagazine.com/thundervalley.

OAKS CARD CLUB: In Emeryville, the poker room has a great selection of tournaments. The week starts with a Monday bounty event at 6:15 p.m., which costs $150. There’s a $185 event Wednesdays at 6:15 p.m.

The weekend events include a Saturday $130 event at 11 a.m. and the largest event is a Sunday $235 at 1. Players can qualify for Player of the Year Tournament Series points when they cash in any of these events.

Oaks also has some fine jackpots, including a Super Hold’em $100K-max bad-beat jackpot (quad eights). There’s also bad-beat jackpots in stud and Omaha/8.

CALIFORNIA GRAND CASINO: The Pacheco room has some large jackpots, including a Progressive Bad Beat Hold’em Double Jackpot, which starts at $140K and increases daily with a qualifying hand of quad eights. There’s also a $200 room share when this jackpot gets hit.

MEET LONZEL THIGPEN

Lonzel Thigpen is a well-known figure at the Nugget Casino in Reno. He plays every morning in the poker room and makes his presence known to his peers.

Whether he’s having a losing or winning session, his positive attitude toward the game is something that truly stands out. He competes during the day and heads to work at Circus Circus Casino as a bartender at night. He’s been working there for 33 years and takes pride in serving excellent drinks to patrons.

How’s the atmosphere at the Nugget’s poker room? The floor managers and dealers are very accommodating to the requests of its poker players. The staff enjoys laughing and smiling, which makes me feel comfortable. The two key components of any poker room are huge pots and a competitive but friendly crowd.

What makes the Nugget so convenient for you? The auto-shufflers speed up the game. The restroom is just a few steps away. The restaurants surrounding this poker room are fantastic. Though the poker room is not located in the heart of Reno, it’s only four miles from downtown and well worth the drive for anyone looking for an action poker game.

What are your hobbies? I enjoy sports-betting, fishing, camping, spending time with my family and watching poker on TV. Also, my favorite poker player is the one and only Phil Ivey. — Philip Chow day for $35. The Sunday bounty tournament is $140 with $25 bounties. There are a few night events at 6:30, including a $150 Monday bounty and a $100 Thursday event. The largest tournament is the third Saturday of the month at noon for $340. Promotions include hot-seat drawings, high hands, Aces Cracked, early bird specials and Omaha Quad Floppers.

STONES GAMBLING HALL: The Citrus Heights, Calif., hosts its $250K Fall Classic series Sept. 29-Oct. 8. It will have six events with the first five being one-day tournaments.

The series kicks off with two $120 events Sept. 29, a morning no-limit hold’em tourney and a $5K guarantee Omaha/8 event in the evening.

The $450 main event runs Oct. 5-8 with a $150K guarantee. Finally, this series will have special guest commentators, including David Tuchman, Justin Hammer, Jonathan Little and Annette Obres-tad. See the ad on Page 13 for more from Stones.

SIGUA IS ARIZONA'S STATE CHAMPION

Talking Stick Resort welcomed a record-breaking crowd to the Arena Poker Room on Aug. 15 for its 13th annual Arizona State Poker Championship.

Nearly 1,700 players converged on the property to compete for a share of more than $1.6M, but it was Rellie Sigua who won the coveted title, $265,706 and a $30K watch. Sigua, from Daly City outside of San Francisco, travelled to Scottsdale for the five-day tournament. A pro player for a decade, he joined the championship late in the day as an alternate.

"I've been looking for a title, and this is it," he said. Emotional from the win, he immediately called his wife and his mother, whom he credits for the success. "My mom and wife are my biggest supporters," he said. "My wife encouraged me to keep going and not to work. She had faith in me which helped me stay optimistic."

Dylan Hortin was second ($196,156), followed by Aaron Valencia ($139,508), Jeff Fielder ($105,688), Kevin Lott ($97,233), Michael Bosco ($80,323), Zachary McDiarmid ($56,987), Dameion Bryan ($46,503), Scott Gwilliam ($29,593) and Arman Zolnoorian ($21,128). Other recent results: The $345 Big Stack was Aug. 5. It drew 239 players as 13 players cashed for $4,600 or more, including Kyle Pewsey, Murphy Russo, Thomas Ruwald, Jason Manger, Gordon Woodruff, Jason Fisher, Bob Queen and James Manhennett.

The $240 bounty tournament was Aug. 19 and had 276 players. Ismail Ozaki took top honors for $3,800. The $160 End of the Month event (Aug. 26) attracted 443 players as Siu Wong and Aaron Valencia chopped for $6K each.

Up next is the Fall Classic on Oct. 20-22; see the ad on the next page for more information.

GILA RIVER WILD HORSE PASS: The tournament schedule remains the same this month. The Super Bonus High Hand will be Oct. 7 and 21. Five players receive $100 for the top hands every 30 minutes.

GILA RIVER VEE QUIVA: Football splash pots continue until football season ends. On selected NFL games, three tables will be splashed with $100 on every touchdown. For college games, two tables are splashed. Field goals get one table splashed for $100 and for college it's a $50 splash. For safeties, two tables

MEET JON "JR" ROYBAL

Jon Roybal has been a poker dealer at the Midnight Rose Hotel & Casino in Cripple Creek, Colo., since March 2006. The 43-year-old dealer started playing Texas Hold'em in 1998 with friends and family. He didn't step into a casino until a year later after reading Winning Low Limit Hold'em by Lee Jones and felt comfortable with the concepts. He played the $2-$5 spread-limit game that was common at the Midnight Rose from 1999-2007 when the stakes in Colorado were limited to $5-max bets. This fit his style and almost nonexistent bankroll at the time.

Jones' book taught him the patience and discipline it takes to be a winning player. Later he read Small Stakes Hold'em by Ed Miller, David Sklansky and Mason Malmuth and really started to reap some profits. He still enjoys playing low-limit hold'em, though it seems to be a dying game in Colorado casinos.

Having not read any tournament books, JR will not venture into that venue. His favorite hand is a winning hand he doesn't have to show.

He's married the love of his life, Wendy, and they had a daughter, Haley, in 2007. Since then his poker playing priorities have changed from that of a serious hobby to just a hobby. He spends weekends with his daughter climbing, inline skating and traditional archery shooting.

"My biggest priority now is teaching my daughter to be strong, independent, self-sufficient and to think for herself," he said.

JR strives to be a friendly dealer but firm, fair, professional and consistent. He absolutely knows the name of every player whoever sat at his table. The integrity of the game is of paramount importance to him. He's affectionately referred to as "Mr. Persnickety." — Dick Stein get a $100 splash and college is one table. Quads or better, Red or Black Aces Cracked, high hands and Monday Madness promotions continue, too. Gila River will be making a major tournament announcement for Arizona very soon.

HON-DAH CASINO RESORT: The Tournament of Champions winner is Gary McLeod, left, and the reigning annual King is Jock Phillips.

DOWNSTREAM CASINO: The bad-beat jackpot has exceeded $200K. Getting quad fours beat yields more than $80K.

The WPT DeepStacks series ran in the middle of September and results will be reported in a future issue.

The next monthly $5K freeroll is Oct. 7. Players can qualify by playing 40 hours on eligible tables in September.

WINSTAR WORLD CASINO: At press time, the $2M guarantee main event had not completed. Series results will appear in a future issue.

HARD ROCK TULSA: Running through Oct. 8 is the Oklahoma State Championship of Poker. It opened with a $3K guarantee for $100, followed by a two-day, four-flight, $235 Kickoff Classic with a $100K.

Most events in the series sport $85-$100 buy-ins with a $70 event, a couple of $235 buy-ins and the two-day, $1,100 buy-in, $150,000 guarantee main event. Other events on the schedule include seniors, Jack and Jill, bounty and six-max. The lone non-NLHE event is a $100 PLO.

The hometown RunGood Poker Series stops by Nov. 14-19. The series kicks off with its traditional RunGood Pro bounty tournament, where you can win $1K for knocking someone out of the event.

The series features a $25K guarantee deepstack for $180 and the main event will have $100K guarantee.

All preliminary winners will win a cruise package for two to the RunGood Poker Series global championship cruise May 13-20. All main-event final-tableists win a package as well.

KANSAS STAR CASINO: The quarterly $10K guarantee Tournament of Champions is Oct. 14 at 11 a.m., for the top 40 qualifying players. From July through September, players earn base points for playing in tournaments that run four days of the week. Those points are determined by the buy-in and for top 10 finishes. Qualification for January's freeroll starts Oct. 1.

CHEROKEE CASINO WEST SILOAM SPRINGS: Bryant Libscomb came out on top of a field of 135 to earn $12,500 at August's Cherokee Summer Pokerfest, which had a $350 buy-in and a $50K guarantee. Other winners were Daniel Brewer, Matt Ellis and Kent Werly. Daily Quad tournament players continue to have the chance to win a progressive jackpot. Amounts are awarded for quad aces through quad 10s.

HOLLYWOOD CASINO KANSAS SPEEDWAY: Players on bad-beat jackpot eligible tables an hour before each daily tournament could win one of two hot-seat drawings for an entry into that daily. The entry does not include the dealer add-on. Qualification into the quarterly $35K freeroll ended Sept. 30 as $10K is guaranteed for first place. Players typically qualify through tournament play or cash-game hours.

RIVER SPIRIT CASINO: Oct. 14 is the next monthly $15K freeroll as 40 hours of live play in September qualifies players into it. Oct. 7 will be a day of cash drawings totaling $65K.

On Mondays and Tuesdays at 7 and 6 p.m., respectively, $1-$2 PLO is the featured game. Eight-max $10-$20 Big O with a kill runs Tuesdays and Thursdays at 5 p.m. and Saturdays at 1.

HARRAH'S NORTH KANSAS CITY: The RunGood Poker Series visits in December, but official dates haven't been released.

COLORADO

CRIPPLE CREEK: At the Midnight Rose, the Beat the Boss tournament series in the first week of October features eight events, culminating in the Oct. 8 title event, where managers within the casino (one per table) compete with an instant $75 bounty for being felted.

The top 30 players with the most cash-game hours between Sept. 8-Oct. 5 qualify for this freeroll.

The first seven events include a Meganormous (40K chips). There are four qualifiers leading up to the $500 main event, which runs Oct. 7.

Also in October, one of Jeff Peck's most successful promotions is Throwback Thursdays where stud and stud/8 are spread.

BLACK HAWK: The Golden Gates' Colorado Poker Championship saw Thomas Fuller take down the main event for $51K. The $400 Kickstart tournament saw a large turnout (599 players) to more than double the $100K guarantee. Hemingway, Carlos Patrice and Ryan Remington chopped for $31K each. The series points board saw Hemingway take down first with 300 points, Daniel Nelson was second Patrice was third.

- The Ameristar bad-beat jackpot (quad threes) was $262K at press time.
- At the Isle, the Totally Free room promotion continues. Play six hours to enjoy a free hotel room Sunday-Thursday.
- Around the corner at Lady Luck, a black royal flush is worth $3K. ♠

CHOP GIVES SHIELDS INN TITLE, NEARLY $10K

Alton Shields won the seventh annual $100K Poker Championship on Aug. 6 at the Inn of the Mountain Gods Resort and Casino in Mescalero, N.M.

After a three-way chop, he pocketed $9,833 as Mike Read took second and Homero Ramos was third.

If you missed out, don't worry, you can play in the upcoming Drawing Dead Halloween tournament on Oct. 22 for $230 as big-money tournaments run every quarter.

Also, each Friday is a $120 event at 6 p.m. while every Sunday at 2 p.m. is a $75 event. Earn bonus chips when playing cash games before each tournament.

SANDIA CASINO RESORT: Regular weekly tournaments run, with Sunday hosting a $50 event at noon and a $45 event at 5. Monday brings the Sprint Tournament for $50.

ISLETA CASINO RESORT: Cruz Baca took the top prize of $9,152 after winning the Summer Poker Classic. Be sure to take your shot for some big money in the Fall Poker Classic, running through Nov. 26. Check with the poker room for complete details. Lots of great new daily tournaments are happening here, too. On Mondays, you can play Crazy Pineapple for $15 at 2 and 7 p.m.

Each Friday and Saturday, you can play in added-money tournaments for $100 at 7 p.m.

BUFFALO THUNDER RESORT: The big monthly event continues to be the $150 Last Saturday of the Month tourney, which starts at 1 p.m.

The 6:30 tournament later that evening is a great consolation if you missed out earlier. And because of the large numbers, there are plenty of cash games in hold'em and Omaha.

ROUTE 66 CASINO: Play in three tournaments every day. Most times are for NLHE, but there's a pineapple tournament each Wednesday, plus many tournaments include bounties. Join the Player of the Year promotion where you can earn big bucks for finishing in the top five for the year.

SHRPO DRAWS TOP TALENT TO S.FLA.

With the closure of the poker room for a huge overhaul of the Seminole Paradise area, there was some concern this year's Seminole Hard Rock Poker Open would be much smaller than usual. As a result, the facility decided to reduce the guarantee for the main event to $3M instead of $5M, but players still came out in droves.

The field increased by 40 entries, as 887 players made the prize pool $4.3M-plus. At the conclusion of an extremely long final table, Australian Martin Kozlov outlasted South Florida local Dylan Drazen by slow-playing a set of kings to induce an all-in call and take home the $754K first prize.

With five players left, a tough struggle for several hours saw Kozlov as the short stack before a couple of double-ups moved him into the lead.

"It was super slow and you just had to play it one hand at a time," said Kozlov, a World Series bracelet-winner in 2016 in a six-max event. "The structure was so good you could afford to take some beats, you could lose some pots; patience was the most important thing."

Drazen earned $528K as runner-up and Matt Berkey got $341K for third. The main event was part of the third edition of the Big 4, with final tables of four major tournaments played simultaneously and live-streamed on Twitch.

At the start of the day, Joe Kuether of Milwaukee found himself in the unique position of having to play at two final tables at the same time, but the situation didn't turn out well as he finished ninth in the main and eighth in the $1,100 event after moving back-and-forth between the two tables.

Brian Altman won the $1,100 tourney, defeating 632 entrants. Alex Foxen captured the title of the $2,650 freezeout with the 2016 SHRPO main-event champion Jason Koon finishing third.

The most impressive showing of the day may have been the amazing comeback of John Andress in the $25K high roller. Down to 20K chips, less than one big blind, before the tourney reached the money bubble, the unknown 29-year-old pro from Doylestown, Pa., tripled-up before going back to one big blind. He then went on a run to 600K-plus chips and entered the final table as the short stack at 685K. He eliminated Chance Kornuth

MEET WAYNE ZEEVERING

Wayne Zeevering is tournament director at Daytona Beach Racing and Card Club in Daytona Beach, Fla.

How long have you been involved in the poker industry? I started as a dealer at Delaware Park and while working under great mentors, I learned how a poker room should be successfully run. After that experience, I moved to Horseshoe Casino in Baltimore, where we hosted WSOP satellites that honed my talents and passion for tournament play. Again, my supervisors nurtured my growth in the management area.

What brought you to DBRCC? In 2015, my wife, Michelle, and I decided to opt for Florida weather and in January 2016 started at DBRCC. Working with Director of Poker Operations Dominic Niro, we are striving to further DBRCC's reputation as a must-see poker destination with progressive changes and innovations in the near future.

What do you enjoy most about your position? I enjoy working hard for the players. It's a fulfilling reward of that hard work when one sees players glad they participated in events and relate that to the staff. I've also enjoyed and been helped by many in the industry and will pay it forward to others following me. — Crash Martin and was heads-up with Mike Leah. Despite a 3-to-1 disadvantage, Andress won the title.

"You just have to make the best decision and hope to get lucky and run good at the showdowns," he said.

Poker director William Mason and tournament director Tony Burns have put another successful SHRPO into the books, and at press time were running their first WSOPC.

ISLE CASINO: The Isle Poker Room in Pompano Beach will hold its fourth and final major series of the year Oct. 4-30.

The eighth annual edition of the Isle Open features a $1,500 main event with a $500K guarantee and will have three opening-day sessions Oct. 27-29 at noon. The series kicks off with a $100K guarantee that has eight opening sessions for $175.

There's a popular $570 Player Appreciation event near the end of the series with no house rake. For those who prefer smaller stakes, the 23-event series spreads three events with a modest $60 buy-in.

STOYANOV WINS AT TAMPA BAY DOWNS

In August, the Silks Poker Room hosted its Summer Series and kicked off things with several fun events (knockouts, seniors and women's events, PLO) leading up to the $600 main event with a $60K guarantee.

The tournament brought in 100-plus players to push the prize pool past the guarantee as Plamen Stoyanov won the title and $14K. You may remember Stoyanov, who in 2015 made the final table of the HPT Daytona event and finished fourth.

Donald Brown and Bobby Duggan chopped second and third for $11K each at the Tampa poker room.

The popular $330 Halloween tournament has a $50K guarantee and will be Oct. 19-21. See the ad on the facing page.

MELBOURNE GREYHOUND PARK: Club 52 hosts its first Weekend Extravaganza Oct. 20-22, including a $20K guarantee Oct. 20 at 7 p.m. and a $50K on Oct. 22 at 11 a.m. There's also a bounty tournament on Oct. 21 and the entire weekend series will be hosted by World Series of Poker champion Greg Raymer. See the ad on Page 43 for more information.

HARD ROCK TAMPA: The new poker room has been running the Triple 30s for a few months. Recently, the buy-in increased from $250 to $350 but still boasts a healthy $30K guarantee, 30K units and 30-minute blinds.

DERBY LANE: The St. Petersburg property offers differing events on alternating Saturdays. The first is a $150 tourney with a $20K guarantee. It has 20K units (5K more for the $10 add-on) and 30-minute blinds.

On the alternating Saturday is a $250 event with a $40K guarantee. It has the same 30-minute blinds but with the $10 add-on you go from starting with 30K chips to 40K. This tournament ran twice in August and was met with 200-plus players each time. Call the poker room for more info.

RESULTS TO COME: There are some great series running in the bay area at press time. Seminole Immokalee is busy hosting the WPT DeepStacks and the Hard Rock has its $100K Little Slick. Look for results in a future issue.

MISSOURI

AMERISTAR ST. CHARLES: The Heartland Poker Tour runs through Oct. 2. Tom Morse won the last main event here for $117,249, topping a field of 359. The $1,650 main-event final table kicks off at noon Oct. 2 and it will be live-streamed at Twitch.TV/HPTpoker.

DEEP RUNS FROM ST. LOUIS PLAYERS: Despite making it to Day 2 in the Global Casino Championship at Harrah's Cherokee in North Carolina, Joshua Turner was unable to make back-to-back final tables at the tournament in which he finished third last year.

Turner, who started the day in the middle of the pack, picked up a run of bad cards, forcing him to fold for 90 straight minutes. He finally got pocket aces and got it all-in preflop against Jesse Yaginuma's pocket jacks, but Yaginuma flopped a jack and Turner was out.

St. Louis local Craig Welko made his first Mid-States Poker Tour final table at the Indiana State Poker Championships at Tropicana Evansville in mid-August.

The main event drew 320 entrants and Welko was eliminated seventh after losing a race with pocket fours, taking home $10,503, the second-largest score of his career.

NORTH FLA. IS THE PLACE TO BE THIS MONTH

North Florida is the place to play in October. Three high-profile events spotlight the East Coast and Panhandle this month. Bestbet Jacksonville hosts the World Poker Tour, Daytona Beach Racing and Card Club plays host to the Heartland Poker Tour and Ebro Greyhound Park holds its annual Emerald Coast Poker Championship.

BESTBET JACKSONVILLE: The WPT makes a three-week visit Oct. 5-25 as 23 events are scheduled leading up to the $5K main event, which has a $1M guarantee. There will be two starting flights (Oct. 21-22) to the four-day tourney, including the final table on Oct. 25.

There is a WPT event every day of various buy-ins and guarantees, including a bounty tournament with some familiar names, pot-limit Omaha, all-in-or-fold and a $25K high roller Oct. 20 at 3 p.m. See the ad on Page 21 for more.

“Having the WPT as our premier series highlights the progress our room has made as a tournament destination,” tournament director Johhny Pham said. “We’ve shown we are constantly evolving to our patrons while attracting poker players from other parts of the world.”

The summer warm-up series finished Aug. 27 as 441 players created a $221,500 prize pool, exceeding the $150K guarantee. Vontz Burke of Dublin, Ga., won the title and $32K.

DAYTONA BEACH RACING AND CARD CLUB: The Heartland Poker Tour is making its only Florida stop here this season, Oct. 19-30. The televised final table will air in 2018 through various cable stations. The $1,650 main event has three starting flights (Oct. 26-28) with Day 2 Oct. 29 and the final table Oct. 30 at noon. Many satellites are available throughout the series. See the ad on Page 37 for more.

EBRO GREYHOUND PARK: The Panhandle property’s annual signature series, the Emerald Coast Poker Championship, begins Oct. 20. Bracelets will be awarded in seven events, including a $120 tourney, a $550 deepstack, bounty, seniors, rebuy and Omaha/8. The pinnacle event is a $300 championship tournament with three starting flights (Day 1A, Oct. 27; Day 1B and 1C, Oct. 28) with Day 2 and the final table Oct. 29. All events carry guarantees leading up to the $50K guarantee main event.

PENSACOLA GREYHOUND TRACK: The Panhandle poker room has a full month of high-hand specials and daily tournaments, including a $2.5K guarantee tournament for $125 the first three Wednesdays of October, an Omaha/8 tournament at 1 p.m. Oct. 14, and a $20K guarantee for $180 with three starting flights Oct. 26-28. Day 2 and the final table are Oct. 29. Satellites are available most days during October. See the ad on Page 45 for more information.

The August $20K found Charles Bailey amassing all the chips to win $4,500 and bragging rights.

CREEK GREYHOUND: The $10K guarantee on Aug. 19 went to David Burns for $3,542. The field included 59 entries and exceeded the guarantee. Creek Greyhound offers exceptional high-hand promos involving full-house specials all month and has lively Omaha games every day with a growing number of players.

Two Friday night WPTL events run this month, too, as a $10K guarantee for $270 will be Oct. 21 and a $5K guarantee for $120 is Oct. 27. Satellites are available throughout the month for the $10K event.

ORANGE CITY POKER: Visit this new room to take advantage of a professional atmosphere and aggressive high-hand promos. Poker room manager Richard Manning welcomes all to the poker room closest to Orlando.

MISSISSIPPI

PEARL RIVER RESORT: The Ante Up Poker Tour’s Pearl River Poker Open will run Oct. 26-Nov. 5 in Choctaw and, as always, will close with the $100K guarantee $800 main event on Nov. 3, the winner of which will appear on the cover of Ante Up and get a seat in the 2018 Ante Up World Championship. The series boasts a total of $245K in guaranteed prize money.

For the full schedule see the ads on Pages 22-23.

SCARLET PEARL: The D’Iberville poker room pays players $2.50 an hour in comps. Every day from 1 p.m. until midnight, whenever a flop comes in one suit, the pot will be splashed with $25 (maximum once per half-hour). A cool new promotion gives tournament players an extra 1,500 in tournament chips when they produce their previous day’s tournament receipt. For more information about these and other promotions, visit scarletpearlcasino.com.

GOLDEN NUGGET: In Biloxi, you can have breakfast on the house. Three consecutive hours of live-action play earns you a breakfast- or lunch-buffet coupon. On Friday and Saturday nights, players earn squares for high hands. These squares will award money when drawn. The drawings take place hourly from 7 p.m. to midnight with each square paying $100. Squares where no winner is present will roll over the prize amount to the next hour. Any money not awarded during the promotional night will roll over to the next night.

If mid-week is more your style, visit the Nugget for high hand of the hour with $100 rollovers. Each day from 5 p.m. to 6 a.m. Sunday-Thursday, and then again on Friday and Saturday 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. any player who makes a qualifying hand of aces full of jacks or better could win $100. If no winner is present, that money rolls over to the next hour until awarded.

NORTH CAROLINA

TRAGER CAPTURES DELAWARE TITLE

Juergen Trager, a plumber by trade, of Dagsboro, Del., won the Delaware Poker Championship at Dover Downs Hotel and Casino. He was one of 281 entries, which swelled the prize pool to $134,178. He started Day 2 in eighth place and increased his stack throughout the day. When the final table reached seven players, there was a chop of $29,925 each, though they played it out for the crown. Joseph Cashen from Severna Park, Md., battled for more than an hour heads-up with Trager for the title, but Trager's K-8 made a full house on the final hand. All guarantees in the series exceeded.

So with all of those guarantees being met, why not host some more? Dover Downs will offer guaranteed events every weekend this month. Saturdays at 11:15 a.m. will sport a $5K guarantee for $100. There's also the popular Getaway Weekend Oct. 6-9, including a $30K guarantee Oct. 7. ## MEET LEXI GAVIN

How do you stay disciplined in maintaining a schedule for cash games and tournaments? I have a set schedule in New York, where I play cash full time. I definitely prioritize cash games over tournaments, which is why I typically only travel for main events on the tour. However, I do think I am going to dedicate more time for tournaments this coming year.

How did you get into poker as a career? I began my career playing full time online primarily on PokerStars. After (Black Friday), I moved to Canada with a group of friends. I was very fortunate in that I had the opportunity of learning from some of the greatest pros. After a couple years of living in Canada, I decided to make the switch to live poker and moved to Vegas in 2012 to become a live pro.

How much are you involved in charity poker events? I work with two non-profit organizations. I am on the board of directors for Support the Kid, a children's cancer charity. We raise and distribute funds to families who have children who are battling cancer. (I'm) VP of marketing for the Charity Series of Poker, an organization that holds tournaments in different casinos to raise money for various charities. — Jo Kim

PALMA, AGAIN, WINS BIG STAX OPENER; YOUNG GETS MAIN

Big Stax returned for its 22nd series in August at Parx Casino near Philadelphia with another record-breaking number in the $340 opener. There were 2,805 registrants, crushing the record of 2,557.

Joe "Worm" Palma, who won a Big Stax series opener on May 1, took the lead again at the final table. After 16 grueling hours of play on Day 3, Palma once again claimed the trophy and collected $120K, which was nearly twice what he took home just months before.

"The ability to navigate my way through the field is one of my strong points," Palma said. "I try to have fun while maintaining my game. Everything else takes care of itself."

Palma, recently made one of SugarHouse's poker ambassadors, cashed in 16 events this year, which nearly doubled his earnings to $844,617.

There were 1,395 entries in the $550 Big Stax 500 for a prize pool of $686,375. The final 33 players returned on Day 3, when Greg Nerenberg, Shankar Pillai and David Zemel agreed to a chop for $94,467, $78,404, and $77,874, respectively. Some of the notables at the final table were Chris McNally, who came into Day 3 as chipleader, and Abe Faroni.

The series wrapped with some of the best tournament players in the area at the final table of the $1,500 main event, which drew 447 players for a $650,385 prize pool. Mike Lavenburg finished runner-up for the second time in the Big Stax main.

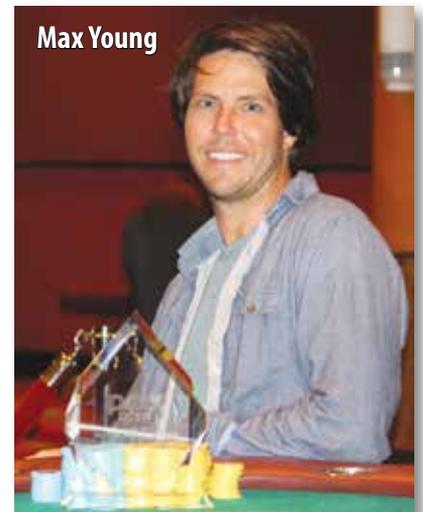

"It obviously sucks not getting a win after playing for so long and being so close," he said. "But it's easy to forget how fortunate I was to getting there. Only thing to do is work harder and try again."

Renata Colache, first time at the final table, also was the first to bust for $9,235. Other notables at the table were Lavenburg, Vinny Pahuja, Chris Horter, Jason Rivkin and Zhaoxing Wang.

However, the last man standing on a three-way chop was Max Young with the most chips. Young, Lavenburg and Pahuja decided on a deal that paid them $120,930, $90K and $85K, respectively.

Big Stax returns Oct 8-30.

MOHEGAN SUN POCONO DOWNS: The poker room has announced the Pa Poker Classic, which will run Nov. 26-Dec. 2. The main event is $550 and is Dec. 2. There will be plenty of satellites for the main event so call the poker room for details. ♠

MEET JAY PHILIPS

The owner of two IT-computer companies, Jay Philips often can be found playing a poker tournament on weekends or the occasional evening. She's also a Blue Shark Optics team pro and she started Kicker Problem, a poker apparel company. Despite being busy with so many projects, she's also one of the most enjoyable opponents to have at your table.

How did you get into poker? My husband, Jason, taught me a few years ago so I had something to do while he played blackjack. Now he says he created a monster because I always want to play when I have free time.

How did become a Blue Shark Optics pro? My friend Tracey Eaton gave me a pair of Blue Shark Optics to try and I found that it helped my eyes from not drying out. I was wearing the shades for a while then (owner) Kerry Karoutsos had posted about looking for new pros, so I applied.

What are your goals as a poker player? My first goal is to cash in the World Series main event. My next goal is to win the WSOP main event. Would be great if they happen at the same time. — John Somsky

The $500 main event drew 262 entrants for a $114,363 prize pool. Other notable results from the series include Scott Johnson of White Bear Lake, Minn., who beat 72 opponents to win the $200 six-max event.

He took home $4K of the $13,873 prize pool. Anthony Lambert of Minneapolis won the $150 doublestack, outlasting 63 entrants for $2,826. Andre Brown of Burnsville, Minn., won the $300 bounty event for $3,177 plus bounties.

CANTERBURY PARK: Paul Cross of Minneapolis won the $350 Mid-States Poker Tour regional event in Shakopee. Cross earned his largest career cash ($61,911), outlasting 1,169 entrants (a state record).

"It's humbling and overwhelming," Cross said. "I actually got pretty emotional. I have been grinding these tournaments for a long time and have made a few final tables, but a MSPT final table was a big goal for me. It is the most prestigious tour that comes through Minnesota. So, to make my first and go on the heater of a lifetime was unbelievable."

The event generated a $339,179 prize pool, rivaling $1,100 main events.

WISCONSIN

STATE RECORD: Local Milwaukee attorney Matthew Vignali topped a field of 1,658 entrants, the largest tournament in Wisconsin history, to win the MSPT Potawatomi $350 regional for $70,240.

REICHARD THIRD: In early August, seven-time World Series of Poker Circuit ring-winner Josh Reichard finished third in the Global Casino Championship for a career-best $130,498. He qualified for the invite-only event by becoming the WSOPC Horseshoe Council Bluffs Casino Champ.

SIMULTANEOUS FINAL TABLES: Joe Kuether, who is second on Wisconsin's all-time money list, had a big weekend in Florida when he final-tabled the Seminole Hard Rock Poker Open's $1,100 event and $5,250 championship. He finished eighth in the former for $15,749 and ninth in the latter for $75,413.

BAD BEAT HITS: On Aug. 25, the bad-beat jackpot hit at Ho-Chunk Gaming Wisconsin Dells. Miro Semanisin won $34,649 after his aces full of 10s lost to the quad 10s of Judd Butterman, who received $17,324. The room share was $866. ♠

TWO-OUTER PROPELS HERSTEIN TO HPT TITLE IN CHICAGOLAND

As Gary Herstein prepared for his early final-table exit, the last thing on his mind was winning his first Heartland Poker Tour title at Ameristar East Chicago. Then his two-outer hit on the river. He managed to survive a wild and unpredictable main-event final table to win $170K-plus and a $3,600 championship package.

"It's unbelievable," he said after the tournament. "I had a read; and I had some help. All these guys back here," he said as he turned to his large group of supporters on the rail.

This was the Chicago native's biggest win and that's saying something since he has 93 cashes and $500K-plus in live earnings. The prize pool was nearly $745K with 517 entries.

Mark Owens won the $300 Monster Stack opener for $50K. The Chicago native made a HPT main-event final table here in 2007 and the $10K regional championship at Horseshoe Hammond in 2010. With 1,180 entries, the prize pool was $342K-plus.

Emmett Horaney won the $300 seniors tournament for $6,556 after a six-way chop that included Ron Magers and Ante Up's Joe Giertuga. Richard Roth from Villa Park collected almost $9K for winning the $200 seniors.

The HPT returns here Jan. 11-22.

MAJESTIC STAR: The America's Poker Tour main event ended with Brian Skreens and Gary Herstein agreeing to a chop after eliminating Mac Hill in third place, giving Skreens $39K and the title.

The final table featured this year's WSOP seniors winner, Frank Maggio, and the popular Henry Zou, who travels here regularly from Saginaw, Mich. The event had 183 entries for a prize pool of $177K-plus.

"I had a great time in the greater Chicago area," said Christopher Lee Womack, who co-hosted the live stream with Derek Melicher. "I can honestly say poker is strong and they have many good players from this area of the country. Chicagoans know their baseball and Texas Hold'em poker. Always looking forward to the solid poker competition."

Kennii Nguyen came out on top of 537 entries, winning the $200 deepstack opener for $20K. He spent five years in Las Vegas as a pro before moving to Chicago. He has $788K in all-time earnings.

Tim McCarthy came out on top of a field of 81 entries to win the seniors for $4,224. With three senior victories, McCarthy is Chicagoland's most successful old guy.

The Munster, Ind., native, has won four titles from four tours in his home state. His biggest win was a six-max WSOPC event in Southern Indiana.

TROPICANA EVANSVILLE: Satish Thakur won the MSPT main event after a seesaw heads-up match with "Big" Al Hedin, who had a huge stack at one point. The Michigan IT programmer's patience paid off, winning $71K.

WSOPC main-event winner Kurt Jewell made the final table. The prize pool was almost $309K with 320 entries. ♠

DON'T OVERESTIMATE YOUR SKILL

Most of the population believe they're above average in all areas when asked. This number is staggering because by definition 50 percent are above average and 50 percent are below. However, people consistently rate themselves above average. Don't make this mistake in your poker game.

BRENT PHILBIN

THERE ARE BETTER PLAYERS OUT THERE: It's important to realize no matter how good you are and no matter how many hours you play, there are better players than you.

It's important to avoid playing with these players if possible, but realize they're not always easily identifiable.

Approach a table with the understanding that it's likely one or more of those players have a more developed skill than you.

DON'T ASSUME A BAD PLAY IS MADE BY AN IDIOT: Phil Hellmuth loves to assume the opponents are idiots and bad at poker. If you have a massive ego, I can see how this is necessary. But if you don't, you'll see some players are better than you, and that's OK.

IT'S EASY TO ASSUME SOMEONE IS BAD: There was a $2-$5 NLHE game I played in once that had one of those fish you don't see too many times a year. He had $5K-plus in front of him. I deecided the proper opening raise preflop was $100. This person always called if he already had called $5 and he was on my immediate right. As word spread of this guy, the better players in the room started to come to my table.

I LOOKED LIKE THE IDIOT IN THAT GAME: If you come to a $2-$5 game and the first hand you see one player limp and the next player make it $100 to go, that looks really bad. You easily can assume I'm a bad player.

The good players that sat in this game asked me to raise the max buy-in. At that point, it was really important I had significantly more than the max buy-in.

I wanted to be the only competent player at the table with enough money to bust this gigantic fish, so I said no and my reason was "It's out of my bankroll, sorry."

I wasn't trying to look bad in the game, I just wanted to move along. At the end of this session, where I won more than I thought was possible, one of the good players said to me, "Dude, when I sat down, I thought you were an idiot; you were literally the only one that knew how to play against that guy."

You probably are better than your competition, especially if you read this magazine, but be ready to be humbled at times.

WHEN TO THREE-BET WITH POCKET NINES

I recently started a free hand-review video series for Advanced Poker Training (advancedpokertraining.com/hand-reviews). In this hand (nine-max cash game), there was an open-raise from the button and our hero was in the small blind with 9-9. Should he three-bet or just call?

STEVE BLAY

I'm going to assume regardless of the playing style of our opponent, they're going to open-raise a wide range of hands first-in from the button. A typical button opening range is shown in the diagram. You can make charts like these and compute winning chances using the APT odds tool (advancedpokertraining.com/odds).

Playing styles determine our response:

NITS: Nits hate getting three-bet. They're going to fold hands such as  $K\heartsuit-J\clubsuit$  and  $A\heartsuit-10\clubsuit$ . Those hands were a coin-flip against us, so we love they're folding out all that equity. They're only going to four-bet us with premium hands (A-A, K-K, Q-Q). So we can safely fold our 9-9 when we get four-bet and save a lot of money. So against nits, three-betting is the best play.

FISH: Fish call too much. When we three-bet, they're going to call us with small pocket pairs, suited hands such as  $8\spadesuit-7\spadesuit$  and  $A\heartsuit-5\heartsuit$  and worse. We want to three-bet fish to get more money in the pot against a hand range we dominate. And, of course, fish play poorly on the flop, which is nice.

LAGS: Three-betting a loose-aggressive player would be counter-productive. We want to just call and let them defeat themselves with their over-aggression post-flop. If we don't flop a set, depending on the circumstances, we might even call down all three streets with our nines.

REGULARS: We don't want to three-bet tough regulars. A good player is going to four-bet us with a balanced, polarized range. Big pairs, yes, but they're also going to four-bet with 5-5 and  $8\heartsuit-7\heartsuit$  sometimes. And that's a problem for us, because those are hands we had crushed and now they got us to fold (because we really are looking for trouble if we're calling a four-bet with nines out of position).

So the bottom line is our response has everything to do with our opponent's personality type, which is why it's important to pay attention. To see the conclusion of this hand, check out Hand Review No. 3 on Advanced Poker Training, using the link above. ♠

SUCCESS IS PACKED WITH FUNDAMENTALS

I'm resuming teaching my poker class at Pima Community College in the near future. Please take a moment to absorb this testimonial: "Mark Brement has been my coach for more than five years. Today, I make money at poker on a consistent basis. Coach started with fundamentals and then went on to plug a number of leaks in my game."

BREMENT

This student is a player who I think of as an "easy keeper." He read all the books, grew his game and took a great deal of time and effort to make poker a winning hobby. Furthermore, he retook my three classes numerous times.

At all levels, poker is a vexing game and in to be a winning player we must be willing to spend a significant portion of time on game improvement. Before a player enrolls in advanced class, it's a better idea to take the beginning class I offer because poker players often stray from fundamentals.

I have taught hundreds of players. Never has a player complained to me that he should've passed on the early class. Quite the opposite, at the beginner level, we're focused on fundamentals.

The higher stakes and longer we play cards, the more likely somewhere along the line we develop a bad habit that costing us money. My favorite coaching story is about Vince Lombardi, one of the greatest football coaches of all time.

On the first day of training camp, Lombardi walked into the locker room and said, "Gentlemen, this is a football," and from that point on fundamentals, fundamentals, fundamentals were stressed.

Whether you consider yourself to be an expert or a beginner, here are a few fundamentals that deserve introspection:

BLIND PLAY: Many astute players overplay their blinds based on the notion that the player in the blind believes he is "priced in."

Also, blind-play strategy is vastly different in tournaments. Yes, at times we're priced in to play.

Confused yet? Don't forget that by calling the raise from the blind, we have effectively entered into a contract to combat an opponent who, for the rest of the hand, will have positional edge.

This is often overlooked. If we're not hitting our hourly win-rate targets, analysis on blind play is a good place to start.

STARTING HANDS: Players tend to open their game for two reasons: As players gain experience, they become more comfortable straying from their strict discipline. And, when losing, players become less disciplined. You can't beat this competitive game of skill unless you stick to fundamentals. "This is a football."

A NEW WAY TO PLAY CRAPS

A poker player named Tyler, who wouldn't give his last name, claimed he was kicked out of a Cincinnati casino because patrons complained he pooped his pants, a claim he denied. He said he it was because he had won $2K during a promotion.

CHRIS SAID: That stinks. (Chris pauses for laughter.) What I find interesting is he thinks the casino cares what he wins in a poker promotion. It's poker! You're not even winning the casino's money. They don't care how much you win. So that can't be the reason. So you must have pooped your pants!

SCOTT SAID: This must be the best poker promotion in history! This guy dumps in his pants, goes to the bathroom, throws his underwear away, soils his pants and comes back out because it's such a great promotion that he can't leave! He has to win more money! "Oh, man! It's a disaster in my pants right now, but it's $2K an hour!"

HOW DO YOU AVENGE POKER LOSSES?

The Rev. Kevin Gugliotta, who recently was sentenced to 23.5 months in jail on child pornography charges, said he kept the illicit material to get revenge on God for his poker losses.

SCOTT SAID: Everyone has a direct line to God. God has nothing better to do than listen to you. "Ah-hhhhhh, that Kevin. He's getting back at me! Burrrrrrrn!" That just doesn't work. Sorry, folks. Lots of things wrong with this, starting with thinking anyone would actually think this would work. Can you imagine him walking into his lawyer's office with this story, and the lawyer saying, "Man, that's going to work! That's better than anything I came up with. Slam dunk!"

CHRIS SAID: What I find funny is the lawyer confirmed this. What do other poker players do for revenge? What do these people do because they suck at poker? You can just tell there is something wrong with this person. It could be a legal argument, but it still didn't work. He's getting almost two years for it.
